Important Information About Procedures for Opening a New Account

To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who opens an account. What this means for you: When you apply for a loan, we will ask your name, street address, email address, date of birth and other information which will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents.

State Law Notices

California Residents:

If married, you may apply for a separate account.

Delaware Residents:

Service charges not in excess of those permitted by law will be charged on the outstanding balances from month to month.
